

Corrections Policy

Mrs. Honey, English 6

- You may correct TWO assignments of your choice each marking period.
- You may only correct one assignment at a time.
- Corrections must be submitted no later than one week before the end of the marking period in which the original assignment was assigned. Corrections submitted past these deadlines will NOT be accepted.
- You must follow the directions on the back of this page to complete any corrections you make. Be sure to follow the correct set of directions for the type of assignment you are correcting.
- Your corrections must be submitted with the original graded assignment and this page to receive credit. Staple them together in the following order:
 - Top: Corrections Policy (this page)
 - Next: Corrections
 - Last: Original Assignment
- When finished, put all work in the Corrections bin at the back of Mrs. Honey's classroom.

CORRECTION DEADLINES

Marking Period 1 Ends: November 5, 2019
Corrections Due: October 29, 2019

Marking Period 2 Ends: January 23, 2020
Corrections Due: January 16, 2020

Marking Period 3 Ends: April 3, 2020
Corrections Due: March 27, 2020

Marking Period 4 Ends: June 25, 2020
Corrections Due: June 18, 2020

Please note the following exceptions:

- Long-term projects such as ORB reports and classroom presentations cannot be corrected.
- Completing corrections does NOT remove late points on original assignments. Any late points incurred on the original assignment are still factored into the new Corrections grade. Be sure you are staying on top of homework assignments to avoid these penalties.

Context Clues Corrections
10/17/19
English 6 1C

Multiple Choice / Fill-in-the-Blank / Matching

1. Write the number of the questions that were marked incorrect. Then, write the letter or word that correctly answers the questions.
2. In complete sentences:
 - Explain why your original answer was incorrect.
 - Explain why your new answer is correct.

* You must explain your reasoning for changing your answer. Answers such as “I didn’t understand” or “I don’t know” are unclear and will not be given credit.*

EXAMPLE

1. A

I originally answered B: disinterested. I thought Laurence was disinterested because he doesn’t fit in or like to play sports like the rest of his family. However, A is the correct answer because perpetual means continuous. Based on the rest of the context clues in the sentence, Laurence feels continuously left out out of his family and society.

Quick Writes / SARs / Essays

1. Read Mrs. Honey’s comments on your original response. Determine where you need to improve (composing a claim, embedding details, explaining details, etc.).
2. Write a new, complete response. You may re-use parts of your previous response, but you must submit a fully revised response to be corrected. You may type or handwrite your response.

If you type, you must print your work before submitting it.

Corrections will only be accepted if:

- all of the above directions are followed.
- handwriting is clear, neat, and legible.

If you need help:
